WARRANTY

With regard to the goods, materials and equipment which are sold under this Contract or which are incorporated in the construction required by this Contract, and in addition to other warranties arising by operation of law or offered by the Contractor, Contractor warrants to the County that:

- (A) the title conveyed shall be good, and its transfer rightful, and they shall be delivered free and clear of all liens, claims, security interests or encumbrances;
- (B) they will be delivered free and clear of the rightful claim of any third person for infringement of any patent, copyright or trademark rights; and,
- (C) they will be delivered new and unused, unless otherwise specified by the County; they will be of good quality, free from defects, and “merchantable” as this term is defined in Section 400.2-314 RSMo; they will be in conformity with any applicable description or specification set out by the County in this Invitation to Bid.

The above warranty obligations shall survive termination of this Contract.

The County shall be deemed to have waived its remedies for breach of any of these warranties by its acceptance of any goods, materials, equipment, labor, work or construction.

Contractor shall be liable for incidental or consequential damages resulting in whole or in part from its breach of any of these warranties.
